

INTERVIEW QUESTIONS WITH SAMPLE ANSWERS

1.How do you define success?

Success is a journey, not a destination. For me, success is about doing my job well. I want to be recognized as someone who always does her or his best and tries hardest to achieve goal.

2.Where do you see yourself five years from now?

Five years from now, I want to set up realistic goals for myself and for my organization. I hope I will achieve my goal.

3.How do you work under pressure?

I actually work better under pressure. I enjoy working in a challenging environment. I react to situations rather than to stress. Thus the situation is becoming less stressful.

4.How long do you plan to stay with us?

My skills are a great match for the organization. It would offer me a chance to grow professionally. I expect to be here for as long as I can make contributions.

5.If you get a job in a company which offers you a higher package, what will you do then?

For me, the work that I do matters a lot. certainly money is what we need to survive. However, I would rather take up a job that I like doing rather than being paid higher and then leaving.

6.How would you react if you had to work with someone whom you did not like?

While working you can encounter a person you don't like. You should remain polite and professional. By learning how to cooperate this colleague, you can continue to have a conflict free work environment.

7.Describe your management style.

Each individual will have a predominant style of leadership, be it directive or authoritative. My own competence, experience and flexibility help me to adapt to a particular situation.

8. What motivates you to work hard.?

I am motivated by achieving set targets within deadlines. gives me a sense of accomplishment and it is something that I can look back and say 'I achieved that'.

9.What type of work do you like to do best?

I am a responsible person and I like to do work which has given me some responsibility. I love to complete work within deadlines.

10.Who is an effective leader?

A person who has the capability of decision making is an effective leader.A leader is encountered with many decisions and he has to act immediately. So,an effective leader should be decisive and he must listen to others for suggestions and advice.

11.what kind of a person you are?

I always look for innovative ideas.I always like clarity and perfection in the work. I am goal oriented and peaceful person.

12.what can you do for us?

I believe that my unique blend of experience,problem solving skills and communication skills differentiates me from most other candidates. I am preety sure I will prove to be an ideal candidate for this job.s